

A Letter to Myself

Directions:

Write a letter to yourself to be opened and read at the end of the school year. Use the guidelines below to help you write the letter. During the last week of school, you will look back to see how much you have grown throughout the school year. Your letter may be written on lined paper or typed.

Guidelines:

- Remember to use a proper letter format (include the date, a greeting, and a closing). Use the attached sample as a guide.
- Be mindful of spelling, grammar, punctuation, and capitalization.
- Your letter should address all of the following questions:
 1. What do you like and dislike about school? Explain your answer with details.
 2. What is your favorite subject and least favorite subject? Explain your answer with details.
 3. What are you good at? What is difficult for you?
 4. What are you looking forward to doing this year in school? Explain your response.
 5. What would you like to learn about if you had the opportunity to learn about it?
 6. What is an academic goal for this school year? How do you plan to reach that goal?
- Review your draft and revise and edit as needed.
- Turn in when completed.
